Dedication

In honored memory of two of North Carolina's leaders, themselves friends, who as members of the Board of Trustees took leading places in forming the plans which in their development have given this school high rank among American Teachers' Colleges and Normal Schools, we dedicate this fifth volume of the Rhododendron — In memory of Hon. E. S. Coffey and Mr. Vance Henkle.

Memorial

Hon. E. S. Coffey was born at Zionville, North Carolina, in 1867. He was the son of W. C. and Carrie (Curtis) Coffey. His parents came to Boone and for years had charge of the Coffey Hotel which made and maintained a very fine reputation.

Mr. Coffey was graduated with the A. B. degree from Wake Forest College in 1890. He studied law under the master, Colonel G. N. Folk, and was admitted to the bar in 1892.

As a lawyer he stood high, and won an enviable reputation for sincerity and honesty in his profession.

Mr. Coffey married Miss Annie Parks of Virginia, a noble woman. Four daughters and one son gladdened their happy home. It is a family of culture and refinement.

He was a Mason and Shriner, and joined the Baptist Church in 1915, and thereafter was constant and active in all religious matters. In 1911, he represented his district in the State Senate, giving much of his time to the Committee on Education, of which he was a ranking member.

In 1925, at the annual meeting of the Trustees, Mr. Coffey and Mr. Henkle sat side by side at supper—good friends that they were—never dreaming that they would both soon be sleeping in the silent tomb of death.

While this Institution has lost much in the passing of these distinguished trustees, we bow humbly to the decree of the Omnipotent. We shall rejoice always in the consoling thought that all is well with them now.

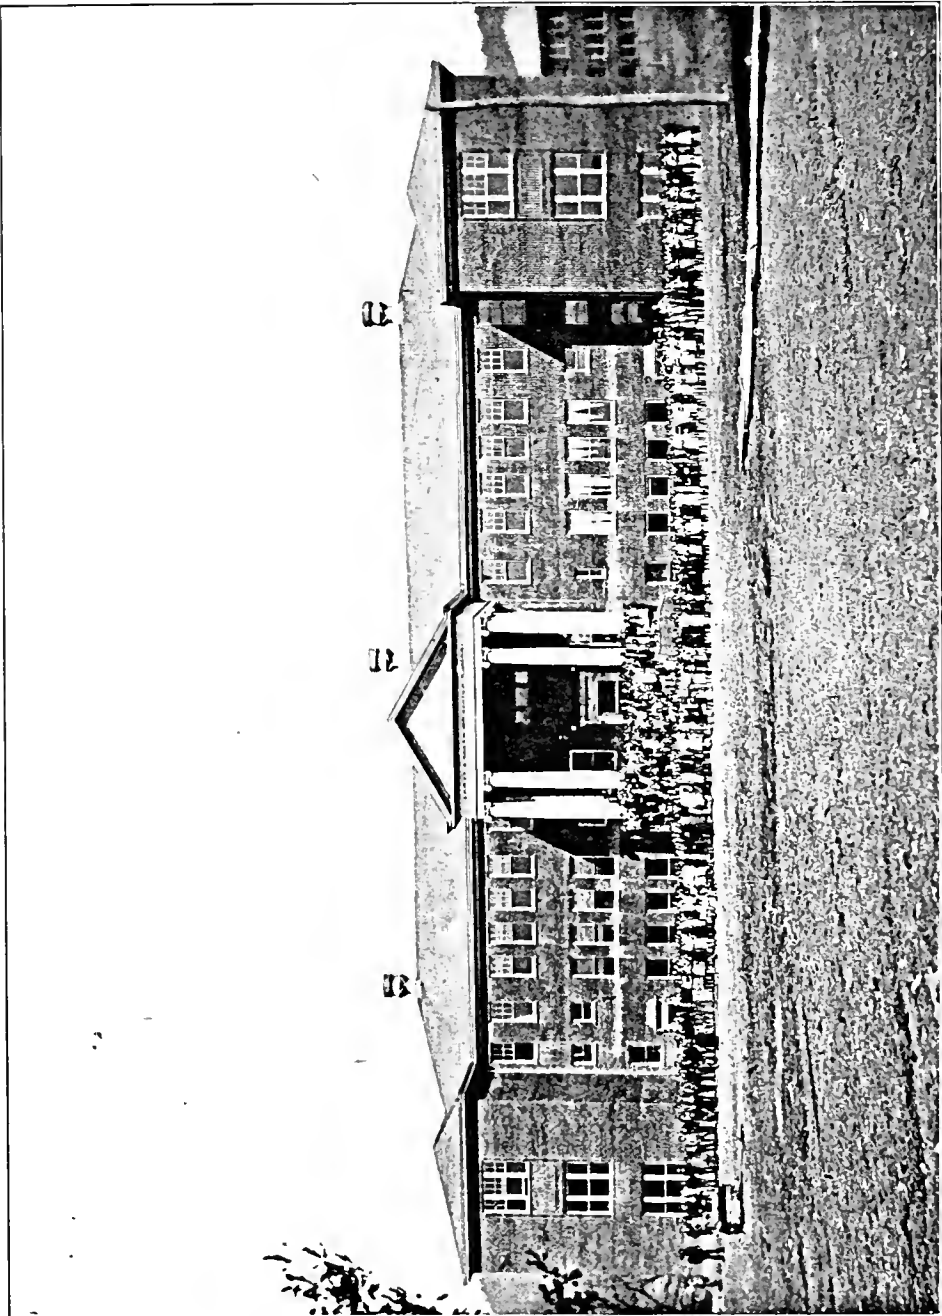

Mr. C. V. Henkle was born in Catawba County, near Conover, in 1868, and was named in honor of Governor Vance.

He married Miss Lila Dunavant of Morganton. Three daughters and one son came to their home, making a delightful family.

Mr. Henkle was an outstanding business man of the State. The Highway to Blowing Rock, the greater Green Park Hotel, of Blowing Rock; the Vance Hotel, of Statesville, are some of the resultants of his many activities. While he accumulated much property, he was public spirited and generous to a fault. Even before he became a member of the Board of Trustees of this college, he always manifested a passionate pride in its growth and development. Mrs. Henkle, his devoted wife, shared with him in all his altruistic activities.

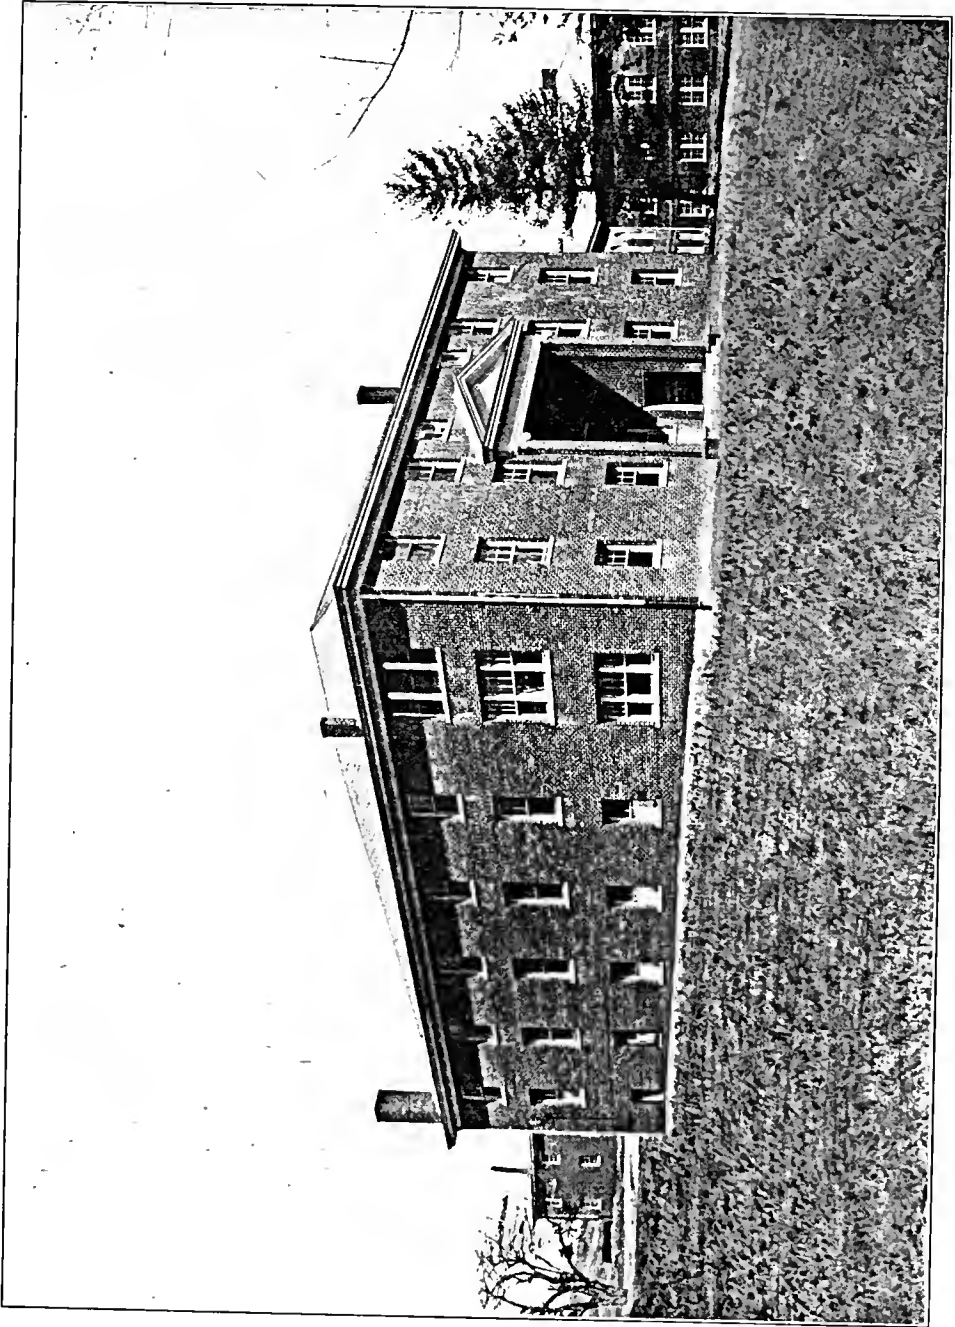

Mr. Henkle was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and had an abiding faith in the life to come.

Normal School

ANNE DULA BEVERLY

"Virtue threads paths that end not in the grave."

Anna is quiet, winsome, and attractive; a good student, true companion, and a faithful friend. She never slight a task or leaves her work undone.

Secretary of Junior-Normal class, '24; member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; member of Tennis Club; member of Art Class; critic of Blan-Dolph Literary Society.

VIRGINIA BINGHAM

"Happy am I, from care I'm free. Why aren't they all content like me?"

However, Virginia is serious when occasion demands it. Yet her sunny smiles and sincere friendship cannot help but win her fame. Her leisure time is spent at the post-office, hoping to receive a letter from Tennessee.

MELLIE BLAKELY

Here's a girl who has won the admiration and respect of all. She is as loyal a daughter as our Alma Mater possesses, and we are confident that whatever field of activity she chooses for her life work, she will always bring honor to A. S. N. S.

Member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '25-26; vice-president of Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '26; censor of Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '26; member of Y. W. C. A., '26; vice-president of Y. W. C. A., '26.

JENNIE BROWER

When a good time is mentioned who is always ready to take part? Why "Jennie" to be sure! Her good humor and witty remarks drive away even our gloomiest thoughts.

Member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; member of Y. W. C. A.; secretary of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; critic of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; chairman of Program Committee, B. D. L. S.

FLOY CANNON

Though quiet, reserved and unassuming, Floy does not lack a fine sense of humor and a love for fun and good times. She never shuns any responsibility and is a mighty good buddy and friend. Judging from her actions we would say that her slogan is: "To have a friend one must be a friend."

GRACE CARPENTER

Carpenter is genial, whole-souled, and discriminating. The whirl of social life attracts her, but she is always ready and willing to do her part in school work. She is both capable and worthy, and as a student or friend she is faithful and true.

HETTIE CARROL

Hettie has a personality that wins with everybody. She is quiet, unassuming, and dignified. Her sweet disposition, winning smile, and graceful ways have won the hearts of her classmates. She does her work in a superior manner and is never found shirking her duty.

Historian of Senior Normal Class; treasurer of Home Economic Club; program committee of Home Economic Club; charter member Home Economic Club; vice-president of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; chairman Program Committee of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; censor of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; member of Y. W. C. A.

ANNIE CLARKE

One of the most genial members of the class is Annie. She possesses the rare quality of being the same wherever you see her, always friendly, always happy, and at all times interested in others. She has won the admiration of all her classmates.

Vice-president of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; chaplain of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; charter member of Home Economic Club; cabinet member of Y. W. C. A.

NELLIE ELIZABETH COFFEY

"Here's a smile to those who love me, here's a heart for every fate."

"Nellie is a fine student of unusual mental ability and attractive disposition. She is an excellent girl; loyal to her friends; faithful to her acquaintances; and sympathetic in every need.

Secretary of Annual Staff 1925; student Editor-in-Chief of Annual Staff 1926.

VIOLET COX

Violet's quiet and studious nature has helped to add many links to her "golden chain of friendship." If she is for you, she is never against you, and one finds her always the same "true blue" wherever he meets her. Class duties are never neglected, but by some means she has ample time to lend a helping hand.

Member Blan-Dolph Literary Society.

ELSIE FARTHING

"Fair as a star when only one is shining from the sky."

Elsie is sublimely gifted with musical talent and personal charm. She is as a sunbeam in the lives of all those she meets, but best loved by the "Royalty."

President of Blan-Dolph Lit. Society.

CORDIA FRANKLIN

Cordia is one who strives to succeed in everything that she undertakes. She is a very studious girl, and in all her work manifests a true love for higher things.

Program Committee and member of Y. M. C. A.; Program Committee and member of Home Economic Club; charter member of Home Economic Club.

FAYE FUNDERBURK

Faye comes to us from Mars Hill College and has proved to be an excellent student. Although rather reserved, she has made many true friends for she can always be depended on, in class or outside. On account of this characteristic, we prophesy for her great things.

Member of Y. W. C. A

EUNICE GOODNIGHT

"The bird of Time has but a little way to flutter—and the bird is on the wing."

Eunice is not only a good student but a good friend as well. The number of her friends is equal to that of her acquaintances.

ESSIE GOODNIGHT

"Modest as the smallest violet that grows, But, my, what a lot of things she knows."

Essie, coming to us from Rutherford College, fell in line and became an excellent student. Her unselfish attitude, never thinking of herself but always of others, has won many friends for her.

ANNIE GREENE

"Greene Annie" is a veritable fountain of joy, forever bubbling over with irrepressible happiness. However, gloomy the situation, she is there with her usual giggle. In her two years of Normal training, books haven't worried "Ann," for she finds other things more important—ball games.

Member Chorus Club, '25-26; member Basketball team, '24-25; member Tennis Club, '24-26; cartoonist of class, '24-25; treasurer of B-D. I. S., '25-26; hon. member of Y. W. C. A., '24-26; hon. member of Home Economic Club, '26.

SAMUEL HELTON

"And yet though vanquished, he would argue still."

Here is a young man who exceeds all his classmates by his oratorical abilities. He is a friend to all being always willing to help his classmates. The "fair sex" can always depend upon Sam, he being susceptible to their charms.

IRENE HENDRICKS

"Irene" with her welcoming smile has been a friend to all those who really knew her. She is one of those who have combined common judgment with a keen sense of humor. She's a good sport and a gay companion. With such a disposition and ability, we can only predict success for her future.

President of Home Economic Club; charter member Economic Club; chaplain of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; charter member of Science Club; secretary Y. W. C. A.

RUBY HINES

*"Full of life, sense and wit,
Lots of fun, and plenty of grit."*

Ruby's attractiveness comes from her frankness, originality, merry laugh, mischievous eyes, and "gift of gab." But these are not her only assets for she is very tactful in the management of children, which assures her success as a teacher.

Hon. member of Y. W. C. A.; cabinet member of Y. W. C. A.; member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; censor, secretary, vice-president of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; charter member of Home Economic Club; cartoonist of Senior Class, '25-26; member of Art Club.

VANN G. HINSON

"Handy" has covered himself with glory since he came to college. Aside from being very prominent in class work, he is one of our leading candidates for all forms of athletics. His greatest success, athletically, is in basketball. While here he has endeared himself to all who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Charter member of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society; president of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society, '24; manager of basketball team, '24-25; assist. physical education director, '25-26; captain of basketball team, '25-26.

MARY JOINSON

As for Mary, we consider her a conscientious student who always does her part. Judging by her success here, we know that she will succeed in her chosen work and we wish her great happiness in the coming years.

Member of Y. W. C. A.; charter member of Home Economic Club.

EMMA LEMLY

"But name me not with the defeated, tomorrow again, I begin."

Emma is a quiet girl; a good student; and an affable companion. Her acquaintances will never forget the happy days and hours passed in her company.

ROSADA McANULTY

Rosada, possessing enough of temper to cause one to beware of her displeasure, is attractive and amiable. She is always ready to do her best at any task. This characteristic has been the cause of her success in all undertakings during her two years here.

Sec. of Senior Normal Class; sec. of Home Economic Club; charter member of H. E. Club; president, treasurer, pianist, hon. member of Blan-Dolph Lit. Society; charter member of Y. W. C. A.; music director in Y. W. C. A.; cabinet member of Y. W. C. A.; member of Chorus Club.

MARIE McFAYDEN

"Worry kills more people than bullets; then why worry?"

This is Marie. Is she attractive? Yes, furthermore, she is so lovable that you can't help admiring her. But don't trust her with your heart, for she is careless—she might break it.

President of Y. W. C. A.; secretary of Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '26; member basketball team, 1924-26; hon. member of B. D. L. S., 1924-26; member of Chorus Club, 1924-26; charter member of Home Economic Club, 1925-26; choirster of Y. W. C. A., 1924-25; charter member of Y. W. C. A.

MONROE McINTOSH

"Mack" is the same every time you meet him. If you are looking for a friend, here he is. He is an exceptional good student always sticking to a task until it is completed. His every deed proves that his motto is: "Actions speak louder than words."

President of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society; charter member of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society.

DEWEY R. MAST

Combining intellectual capabilities and social accomplishments with a pleasing personality, Dewey makes not only a thorough scholar, but a sincere friend. He is doing his part whether it be in love, books, or literary work; and every one appreciates his cheerful and sympathetic nature.

CORA MILLER

"Strongest minds are often those of whom the noisy world hears least."

"Miss Miller," possessing all those qualities which constitute a noble character, is quiet, unassuming, and thoughtful. If you pierce that mask of hers, you will find a friend worth having.

Member of Y. W. C. A.; member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society.

SALLIE MAE MOSTELLER

*"They are slaves who dare not be
In the right with two or three."*

Our Sallie is a very good student; exceptionality distinguished for her fine ideals and her affable attitude towards all whom she meets. She is ever ready to lend a helping hand, and it is frequently sought.

Member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '26; president of Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '26.

ALLIE MUNDY

A loving disposition and charming personality have won Allie many friends, and she is loved and admired by all who know her. Quiet, reserved, and sedate is she, with a private store of knowledge and grit that will carry her through.

RACHEL NIBLOCK

We all love Rachel for her sweet disposition. She is not only admired for her great skill in athletics, but also for being loyal to her friends. She is an all-round good sport and can be depended upon for fun or work.

Charter member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; president of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; charter member of Home Economic Club; member of basketball team, '25-26; captain of basketball team, '25-26.

MAY PHILLIPS

"The heart to conceive, the understanding to direct, the will to execute."

May is known on the campus as a friendly, understanding person who has plenty of ambition and abundance of determination. Her ideals, expressed in a quiet, attractive personality, are much superior to those of the ordinary.

ANNIE MAE RADER

"Many times I laugh at trouble, but once in a while I sigh."

Annie Mae is jolly, good natured, full of "pep," care-free, and faithful. She has a kind word and bright smile for every one and she will always be remembered by her classmates as amiable and unselfish.

Member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; pianist of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; secretary of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; member of Y. W. C. A.

ELMER RANKIN

Every one knows Elmer and all like him. He enjoys the calm of a never hurried existence, and maintains an equal balance between duty and pleasure. Wherever he goes, he will bring credit to his Alma Mater and we are sure to hear great things from him in the future.

Member of Chorus Club, '25; member of Tennis Club, '25-26; charter member of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society; basketball referee; president of Senior Normal Class, '25-26; representative of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society.

LOUISE ROACH

Louise is frank, consistent, studious, and interesting. Each undertaking that falls to her lot is thoroughly completed. She represents that rare personality where one is always ready to do for others and never worries whether he will receive credit and praise commensurable with his efforts.

ANNIE MAE ROBINSON

Annie Mae's quaint personality and dreamer's soul add to her charms. Her personality, which is partly described by a smile dwelling most of the time in her eyes, insures friendship for her when she is among people; her dreamer's soul insures happy hours when she is alone.

Member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; charter member of Home Economic Club; prog. com. of Home Economic Club; cabinet officer of Y. W. C. A.

DOROTHY ROWE

"It's a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

Dorothy can't be easily surpassed as an all-round girl. She is diligent in her work, firm in her devotions, and sincere in her convictions. She is loved by her friends for her gentle manner, and with her persistent determination she is bound to succeed.

Member of Chorus Club, '25; member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '25-26; chaplain of Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '26; member of Y. W. C. A.

RESPERS RAYMOND ROYALL

Respers is optimistic, dependable, dignified, and ambitious. . . . Well, I should say, for he is determined to make the best grade in his class, and who ever heard of him failing. But he does not confine all his interest to college activities, for though busy, he never neglects the ladies.

Poet of Senior Normal Class, '25-26; member of Tennis Club; member of Chorus Club; member of School Quartette; vice-president and charter member of Science Club; censor, secretary, and treasurer of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society; member of Debaters' Council of R. W. L. S.

VIRGINIA SMYER

"The cheerful live longest in years and in our regards."

Virginia is a good student, a jolly companion, and is gifted with both personal charm and intellectual superiority. She is always ready, willing, and never afraid to try.

Member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; member of Y. W. C. A.

MATTIE VARINA TAYLOR

Mattie is very intellectual and dignified, and we all love her as a classmate. She has such a friendly and pleasant smile that we feel sure she will meet with greatest happiness and success.

Charter member and Editor of Science Club; secretary and critic of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; treasurer of Senior Class.

LEVI W. TEAGUE

Teague hails us from Taylorsville. All who have come in contact with him have discovered a man of quiet winning personality who possesses the faculty of making friends easily. You may think him very serious at first but on knowing him you will find him a jolly good fellow.

President of Science Club, '25-26; charter member Science Club; secretary of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society, '25; chaplain of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society, '26; business manager of Annual Staff, '26.

MRS. LEVI W. TEAGUE

Mrs. Teague is a capable, willing, and dependable worker, a sincere conscientious student and friend. She is never caught unprepared and always makes good grades. She believes if a thing is worth doing, it is worth doing well. Her kind disposition and pleasant smile assures us that she will make a successful teacher.

NANNIE LOU THOMASSON

All classes have to have some spice; Nannie Lou furnishes ours. She studies hard every day,— how to have more fun. May she meet the trials of life in the same optimistic way as she has met the difficulties of school duties with us.

Member of Chorus Club, '26; member of Basketball Team, '24-'26; testator of Class of '26; charter member of Home Economic Club, '26; vice-president of Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '26; critic of Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '26; cabinet member of Y. W. C. A., '26; honorary member of Y. W. C. A., '26.

ADA MAE WHITE

"White," an outstanding figure in basketball and our cheer leader, is one of the most popular girls on the campus. She joined us in '25, and in this short time has won her way, by means of her ultra-pleasant personality, into the hearts of many.

Member Chorus Club, '25-'26; member of Basketball Team, '24-'26; member of Tennis Club, '24-'26; censor Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '24; chaplain Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '25; president Blan-Dolph Literary Society, '26; charter member Home Economic Club, '26; hon. member of Y. W. C. A., '24-'26; vice-president Senior Class, '25-'26; cheer leader, '24-'26.

MARY WHITLEY

"Whit," with her cheerful disposition and witty sayings, came gliding in here with a Morganton smile on her countenance. By appearing intelligent and by looking the teacher straight in the eye, she pulls such a good bluff that even Mr. Williams can't tell that she doesn't know her lesson perfectly.

Member of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; critic of Blan-Dolph Literary Society; member of Y. W. C. A.; member of Home Economic Club; doorkeeper Home Economic Club; cabinet member of Y. W. C. A.

GORDON WINKLER

Gordon possesses every characteristic of a gentleman. He is quiet, noble, good-natured, liked by every one, and well deserves the name of being one of the best students in the class of '26. His exceptional talent and firm ambition will surely aid him in carrying out his ideals in life.

President Junior Normal Class, '24-25; charter member of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society; critic of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society; secretary and treasurer Rankin-Wilson Literary Society; vice-president of Rankin-Wilson Literary Society; president Rankin-Wilson Literary Society; sexton Rankin-Wilson Literary Society; Annual Staff, '26; charter member Science Club, '26; member of Debater's Council, '25-26.

AGNES YOUNG

"Knowledge comes but wisdom tingers."

Agnes is a very popular student, charming both in manner and in personality, and friendly to her host of admirers. "Neatness" is her watch word.

Senior Class Poem

"OUR STAR"

How oft some star has sent its ray
To glint across the vaulted dome
And fall into some lonely heart
Or guide a weary traveler home.

But yet at twilight have there been
Ambitious hearts to find a way
Who've sadly slept long ere the star
Has reached the noontide of its day.

Our school is truly our bright star;
Its light has penetrated deep
The sandy nooks of doubting hearts
And sent them forth to sow and reap.

We in the twilight now go forth
Ambitious for some kindlier ray
To keep our minds from thoughtless sleep
And drive the dismal night away.

Perhaps across the great abyss
Of fleeting time we soon shall see
Each other living on a realm
Of thought we ne'er had hoped to be.

Perhaps at no far distant day
Our lives as mirrors will reveal
The generous thoughts and words and deeds
That now the future years conceal

O Alma Mater, wilt thou then
Still guide us with thy fostering care?
O Beacon Light, wilt thou repel
The clouds of darkness and despair?

Shine on, O Star, illumine the path
Which leads into the erudite!
Live on, O Hope, Yea, never die!
And turn our darkness into light!

—Respers R. Royall

Senior-Normal Class Song

(TUNE: "ON THE ROAD TO MANDALAY")

Oh, be loyal, Senior Class,
Firmly take your stand for right,
And go forth this day to conquer,
Never faltering in the fight,
Side with truth, nor lose by flight,
Keep your courage and your might,
Go ye forth with banners flying,
Flee the wrong but woo the right.

CHORUS

Proudly, we the Senior Class,
Know that we can dare and do,
Since at Boone we got our schooling
That is proof enough for you,
Leave to us, for we know how
"Appalachia" brought us through,
We will triumph at the crowning—
So we bid you each adieu.

Now to those we leave behind,
Sadly farewell we must say,
Ye, with clarion notes, this message
Must proclaim again some day,
Faithful band, as true as steel,
Be ye fearful of delay,
You can rise where we have fallen—
Press ye forward day by day.

Faithful teachers how can we
Ever laurels bear to you,
As you rightly are deserving,
For your care and service true,
Please accept sincerest thanks
(None deserving more we see)
And we'll leave this loving token:
"Always happy may you be."

—R. R. R.

Junior Normal Class Poem

We, the class of '27
In this school so nobly planned
Endeavor in our work to be
The very best class in all our land.

Many trials we will find
As onward through this life we go
When dangers cross our path, recall
"Too big to be little," our own motto.

Each senior surpasses us, 'tis thought,
And we are not at all well known;
Although our class is quite as good,
Not often are our merits shown.

Juniors are called the jolly class;
And no exception to this we prove.
We're just a bunch of joy and pleasure,
This helps to make our work more smooth.

Next year as Seniors we'll return—
But little difference there will be,
We'll still be a happy, joyous class
Combined with a senior's dignity.

—Louise Coffey

Senior High School Class Poem

"A PERFECT YEAR"

The approach of the end of a perfect year
Brings a knowledge of the trophies we have gained and lost
The memory of things that are all too dear
Leaves a feeling of gladness for the effort they have cost.

Now we like just to think of the good old days
When we tried to do our best, rejoiced when our best was done,
Rejoiced to find the prize our labor pays
Sometimes a wreath of kindly words that crowns each striving one.

There are those who have come and passed with the rest,
And have counted in the making of a year of delight;
But the one we remember and like the best
Is just the friend, the true-blue friend, that meets his tasks aright.

Our hearts are tied with chains of lasting fondness
To the hearts of our teachers who have helped us day by day;
They made their wholesome smiles a touch of gladness
That cheered our tired minds when in a restless way.

Only things of the past we now think about,
The pleasures and sorrows and joys of a student's life
Now the thoughts of the future must rule these out
And form those plans whereby we may blot out the future's strife.

—Jay L. Curtis

Junior Class Poem

(HIGH SCHOOL)

"We will find a way or make one."
This our motto and our aim,
We, the Juniors, now are climbing
Toward the honored halls of fame.

Ha! we know the way is rugged,
And the toil may cost a life;
Though the hearts of some may falter,
We are equal to the strife.

We are not content to linger
In the foothills of the climb,
There is much that calls us yonder,
For which we yearn, for which we pine.

Tell us not that we're unequal,
For the tumult and the strife,
We're resolved to do our duty,
And attain success in life.

"We will find a way or make one."
This our motto and our aim,
We, the Juniors, now are climbing
Toward the honored halls of fame.

A Beauteous Snow

Behold the beauteous snow
Falling now so peacefully,
Covering with crystal robe
The graceful mountain pine;
Lading each twig so deep
It gently bows beneath
The ermine load so pure.
Each mountain, hill, and dale
Is inches deep in pearl
As though some mystic power had wrought,
Or Hand Divine had formed
A rare and wondrous land
So like unto the Land beyond
That human words are vain
To tell the fullness of the scene
Which spreads before the wondering eye,
Or brush to paint the picture true,
Or song its truest beauty sing.

OUR GOVERNMENT

IN THE BANKING FIELD

IN the early days of banking, before our country was substantially settled, it became necessary to establish a safe banking system.

EVERY safeguard possible was put into force.

STILL guarding the depositor's interest, an expert makes examinations at different intervals, into the affairs of the bank, to assure that all the requirements are being carried out according to law.

THIS institution is backed by a personnel of the highest ability and proven integrity, besides complying with the strict banking rules and regulations.

Our Motto: "Safety and Service"

Our Aim: "To Satisfy"

Big things are only little things put together—Let's pull together, build together, and profit together. Together means To-Get-There. We are keenly interested in the boys, girls and teachers who are anxious to "Get There" in life and are always glad to help them in every way we can. When you come to Boone call in, get acquainted and open an account with us.
